INTRODUCTION

This bibliography consists of references to books, bulletins, and pamphlets dealing with the economic aspects of the strawberry industry in the United States. Periodical articles, as a rule, have been omitted. Some general references on the marketing of fruit which give statistics on strawberries have been included, but no attempt has been made to include them all.

Although, as a rule, material on the culture and varieties of the strawberry has been omitted, the bibliography includes occasional references to such publications when they have been found to contain statistical data.

Certain publications of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, U. S. Department of Commerce, and the U. S. Bureau of the Census have been described in detail as to what they contain on strawberries. In some cases complete files have been described, in others only the latest volume, or those volumes which contain a series of figures over a period of years. In any case, the student wishing earlier or more complete sets of figures should examine the whole file.

A number of publications issued periodically by State departments of agriculture or State agricultural colleges which contain statistical data on strawberries have been included. However, this list does not contain references to all such publications as a thorough search for them was not made.

Numbers following some of the entries are the call numbers used in the Library of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The abbreviation "Pam. Coll." following some of the entries refers to the location of the reference either in the Library of the U. S. Department of Agriculture or the Library of the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

"The purpose of this bulletin is to present in a concise form statistics of fruit and fruit products, including production and trade for the principal producing, exporting, and consuming countries. The figures used have been taken from official sources, usually from publications of the countries treated. Data concerning commerce in fruits are as a rule fairly complete, but those relating to production if not entirely lacking are in many instances either fragmentary or limited to census years."-Introduction.

The following statistics of strawberries are given for the United States (these include only statistics taken from tables): acreage of strawberries, 1910; production of strawberries, 1909; and value of strawberries, 1909. These are figures from the 13th Census.

"This publication continues the weekly formerly entitled Weather Crops and Markets...The monthly crop reports and other monthly statistical summaries will appear once a month in a statistical supplement to be issued about the third week of each month."

This publication includes strawberry statistics, but, as it very well indexed, the statistical tables giving data on strawberries have not been listed here.

186. U. S. Dept. of agriculture. Crops and markets. Monthly supplement v.1, no.1, Jan. 1924 - v.3, Dec. 1926.

This publication contains estimates, prices, monthly crop conditions, etc. The following are the principal statistical tables dealing with strawberries; others may be found by consulting the individual numbers.

v.1.- Statistics of commercial truck crops, 1920-1923 (p.5) (includes acreage, production and prices of strawberries by states); commercial acreage of strawberries, 1924. Preliminary estimate, by states (p.91); strawberries: estimate of acreage and forecast of production in the early and second early states, 1924 (p.123); commercial strawberries, intermediate states - acreage and production (p.175); statistics of truck crops for shipment, 1921-1924. Strawberries for table (p.420); estimated value of farm products, by principal products or groups, 1922 and 1923 (p.85); sources of supply and average monthly unloads of strawberries at New York and Chicago, 1917-1921 (p.174).

v.2.- Preliminary estimate of commercial acreage of strawberries in the early, second early, and intermediate states for 1925, compared with four previous years, and the condition of the plants on January 15, compared with last year (p.46); estimated acreage and production for shipping of specified commercial truck crops (p.150); and statistics of truck crops for shipment, 1924 (revised) and 1925, by states (p.398).

v.3.- Acreage and forecast of production of specified truck crops (p.110); strawberries: preliminary estimate of commercial acreage and condition of plants on January 15, (p.69); estimated commercial acreage and forecast of production of specified truck crops (p.87, 145); revised estimates of commercial acreage and forecast of production for shipment of specified truck crops (p.169, 206); statistics of truck crops for shipment, 1924-1926 (p.412); carload shipments of fruits and vegetables shown by states (p.98, 128, 155, 185, 223, 265); strawberries: preliminary estimate of commercial acreage and condition of plants on January 15 (p.69); price and condition of truck crops (p.86, 109); estimated price of farm products received by producers, February 15, 1925 and 1926, by states (p.86); and prices to jobbers and total shipments of 14 leading fruits and vegetables, 1925 (p.23).

187. U. S. Dept. of agriculture. The market reporter, v.1, Jan. 3, 1920 - v.4, Dec. 31, 1921 (weekly) Washington, 1920-1921.

"The Market reporter is an outgrowth of earlier publications in more limited fields issued by the Bureau of markets. The periodicals formerly issued under the titles of 'Seed reporter' and 'Food surveys' have been merged into this more comprehensive publication, which will also include some other information which has been issued heretofore in mimeographed form." - v.1, no.1, p.1.

This periodical is well indexed so it has seemed unnecessary to bring out each table relating to strawberries.

The following have been noted: Relative acreage, production, and carlot shipments of fruits and vegetables, 1919-1921; v.4, no.1, July 2, 1921, p.9.

Number of carloads of eight important lines of produce unloaded at ten market centers, 1917-1920; v.4, no.10, Sept. 3, 1921, p.154.

Prices of fruits and vegetables, jobbing range: v.3, no.23, June 4, 1921, p.359.

Carload shipments of fruits and vegetables, 1920-1921: v.3, no. 20, May 14, 1921, p.315.

Carloads of fruits and vegetables unloaded at Pittsburgh, by states of origin, 1916-1919: v.3, no.24, June 11, 1921, p.377.

Carloads of fruits and vegetables unloaded at Philadelphia, by months, 1916-1919: v.3, no.12, Mar. 19, 1921, p.187.

Carloads of fruits and vegetables unloaded at Chicago, by states of origin: 1916-1919: v.2, no.5, July 31, 1920, p.70-71.

Carloads of fruits and vegetables, Kansas City market, by states of origin: v. 2, no.1, July 3, 1920, p.9.

Carloads of fruits and vegetables unloaded at New York City, by states of origin: v.2, no.11, Sept. 11, 1920, p.167.
